NO AGE TO WIELD THE CAMERA: Children take pictures during the Chennai Photo Walk organised by the British Council and MIOT International. The event was inagurated by Rajiv Menon, cinematographer and filmmaker, along with Mike Nithavrianakis, the British deputy high commissioner in Chennai. Thirty-five pictures selected from photographers during the walk will be exhibited at CareWalk Exhibition at The Hilton hotel on September 6, 7 and 8 to raise awareness about cancer