

MIOT's Device Reverses Damage of Stroke

Express News Service

Chennai: Stroke Restore Centre at MIOT Hospitals has introduced a new device called 'stent retriever' to extract blood clots in the blood vessels, which will prevent a patient from stroke.

According to a press release, the stent retriever allows the doctors to remove clot in the blood vessels without open surgery, there by reversing stroke damage.

The leading centres across the world prefer stent retriever as it showed 79 per cent success rate and also recovery from blood clot complications is easy. The patient can go home within hours of the procedure and recovery period is also fast.

Severe strokes are mainly caused by

MIOT Hospital introduced Stent Retriever, a device to reverse damages of stroke blocks in large blood vessels. In conventional method, dissolving or aspirating the blocks was the only option.

MIOT Stroke Restore Centre offers the combined expertise of Endovascular specialists, Neuro surgeons, Neurologists, Neuro intensivists and trained nursing staff critical success of this cutting edge.